School production: “The Wizard of Oz”

After all the planning, preparation and rehearsals, those involved with “The Wizard of Oz” will have the chance to display their talents over the coming week. The first show, which is the Café night, is on Friday with two matinees and two more evening shows next week. It takes a lot of energy and commitment to put on a large-scale production such as this and I’m sure it will be a very rewarding experience for all concerned. Good luck to all concerned.

Peter’s Project:

The following email was received from Vicki Jellie, Director of the Peter’s Project Foundation this week in response to the fundraising for Peter’s Project that has taken place during first semester.

Good Morning Everyone,

It has been exciting to have been kept updated of the progress of the Student Leaders Congress.

I don’t know information about all the events that have been organised at your school, but would love to hear more details. I have met up with quite a few students over the past couple of months who have excitedly told me about some of the things their schools have been doing. They have all been enthusiastic and committed to the task.

I thank you all for including and supporting Peter’s Project this year and I think it is a wonderful initiative for the future to support many charities with whom your students will identify with.

I very much look forward to the Night of Celebration and seeing and hearing the results of everyone’s hard work.

Your students should all be very proud of themselves and all schools involved can be proud of this great community achievement. We are fortunate to have great student leaders in our midst who will ensure a bright future for our region.

Kind regards

Vicki Jellie

Warrnambool Eisteddfod

On Wednesday, all our Years 1-6 students are competing in the choral section of the Warrnambool Eisteddfod. The students have been rehearsing their songs throughout the term and are all eagerly anticipating performing for an audience. I would like to thank Kath Tanner for all her hard work in preparing the students for the day.

Aussie of the Month

The ‘Aussie of the Month’ award is awarded to a student who is recognised for a significant contribution to school life each month. The recipient for March, Simon Atkinson, was presented with his certificate and badge at Monday’s assembly. Simon received the award for being really supportive of other students during the recent cross-country runs and also for his ongoing work with the school’s recycling program. Congratulations Simon!

‘Skoolbag’ App

Just a reminder that the new Mortlake College ‘skoolbag’ app is now available and will enable quick and easy communication between families and the school so I would encourage all our families to download the app to your smartphone or tablet.

Greater Western Region cross – country

Congratulations to the fourteen students who represented the school at the Western zone cross – country event held in Hamilton last Friday. All students competed really well and we had three students qualify for the state cross country event to be held in Melbourne in the first week of next term. Special congratulations to Bree Kirkwood, Isaac Wareham and Tyler Fowler.

Last day of term: Friday 27 June

Parents are reminded that school finishes at 2:30pm on Friday 27th June. Buses will leave the school shortly after that time.

Graeme Good

Students in years 10, 11 and 12 interested in medicine, dentistry, or optometry will need to sit the compulsory UMAT (examination) when applying for one of the above career choices. What’s for lunch? Ideas from Masterchef Mortlake College’s GREEN TEAM

Lucy Gubbins, Kate Calvert, Charlotte Gubbins, Kate McGavin and Rachel Wickham cooked and created Vegie sticks with Guacamole Dip, Lettuce & Sweet Chilli Chicken wraps and Apple Pikelets.

Now you too can cook and create these easy and delicious foods for lunch this week.

Guacamole

2 ripe avocado, peeled and chopped
1 ripe tomato, finely chopped
1 clove garlic
¼ cup lime juice
Salt & pepper to taste

Place all ingredients in a food processor and pulse until just combined. Don’t over process as you want it to be quite chunky.

We are serving this dip with Carrot, Celery and Cucumber Sticks.

Lettuce & Sweet Chilli Chicken wraps

2 tbs tomato sauce
2 tbs sweet chilli sauce
2 tbs olive oil
500g chicken mince
2 garlic cloves, finely chopped
4 green onions trimmed and thinly sliced
1 carrot, grated

To serve:
8 small iceberg lettuce leaves
4 slices mountain bread (halved)

1. Combine tomato and sweet chilli sauces in a jug
2. Heat oil in a wok over high heat. Add chicken mince and stir fry 4-5 minutes or until white and cooked through. Add garlic, green onion and carrot and stir fry one minute. Add tomato sauce mixture. Stir fry for 1 minute.
3. To serve, spoon chicken mixture into lettuce leaves and wrap in mountain bread.

1 egg, lightly beaten
300ml buttermilk
½ cup (140g) apple puree (or you can use grated apple)
20g butter, melted

School for Student Leadership 2015

As mentioned in the newsletter over the past few weeks Mortlake College is very fortunate to have the opportunity to apply to send a team of students to one of the campuses of the SSL during 2015. The course is for students who will be in Year 9 in 2015.

Mr Michael Castersen, Principal of the Gnurad-Gundidj campus, will be coming to the school on Friday morning (20th June) to talk to students about what the course involves. He will be talking to all Year 8 students, and parents are also most welcome to attend if they wish. Students will then be asked to fill out an expression of interest form and return it to me by next Monday if they wish to be considered for the Mortlake College team in 2015.

If you have any questions about Friday morning, or the SSL, please feel free to contact me at school.

A visit from Mrs West by Lockie

Thursday June 5th.
I came into the classroom and I saw the chairs were moved. The chairs were moved and the boys were on one side and the girls on the other. Mrs West took us outside and we played quoits and hopscotch and knuckles and elastics. The first school was made in a tent and the boys had to bow and the girls had to curtsey. In 1858 there was a proper school. Mrs West was good because she played games.

A visit from Mrs West by Mia

Thursday June 5th.
Today we came into our beautiful classroom this morning to see all the good chairs and tables all moved into lines. One side of the classroom was the girls and the other for the boys. Mrs West was Julian’s mum Fiona and was pretending to be a very unusual teacher from a very long time ago in Mortlake. She was wearing a lovely blue dress with a brooch. Mrs West taught us about schooling and that the first school was built in a tent. It would have been very cold and there wouldn’t have been electricity. In 1858 the second school was built in Mortlake. There were 14 children and then it got bigger, so they decided to put another room on the school, so they did. The only thing they weren’t allowed to play with was marbles. They had to have bread, cheese and an apple for lunch and that was all. When they went past the teacher they had to bow. Today we went out to play games. It was an excellent day.

Excitedly we had a surprise to see the chairs and tables had been moved. Mrs West was pretending to be a teacher. The boys were not allowed to sit together today. We had a surprise today. We went outside and played games. I like hopscotch.
A visit from Mrs West by Ashton

Thursday June 5th.

Excitedly I came into the classroom to find Mrs West was here. All the chairs and tables had been moved. Mrs West was Julian’s mum, she was wearing a dress with a high collar and a brooch that had roses. We played hopscotch, knuckles and quoits. We saw the first stone school. They weren’t the very first, it was built in a tent. In 1858 Mortlake common school was built. In 1873 children had to go school. Boys and girls were kept separate. They both had different subjects. The boys did geography, while the girls learnt how to knit and stitch. They had dried bread, cheese and apple for lunch. They had porridge for breakfast. My highlight was when we played the games.

A visit from Mrs West by Noah.

Thursday June 5th.

Kids had to eat hard bread. Boys and girls had to bow and curtsy.

A visit from Mrs West by Lucy

Thursday June 5th.

In the morning we went into the classroom and everyone saw the chairs and tables were moved. Julian’s mum pretended to be Mrs West. In 1858 the school was a proper school. The girls and boys had to be on different sides and sit on opposite sides. We played hopscotch and knuckles and elastics and quoits. The best thing about her visit was giving her a present.

Today we came into the classroom and all the chairs were in a line. The boys were on one side of the classroom and the girls on the other side of the room. Julian’s mum, Mrs West excitedly came in and taught us all about the olden days. Mrs West was wearing a pretty brooch. Mrs West taught us the games they played in the olden days. First we played quoits, second elastics, third hopscotch and fourth knuckles. In the olden days for breakfast they had porridge. For lunch they had hard bread. They had no television. In 1873 they had to go to school. Before 1873 they didn’t have to go to school. Boys and girls were not allowed to play with each other and they weren’t allowed to sit next to each other. When they saw their teachers, they had to bow to them. The girls had to curtsy. My favourite thing was the games and my favourite one was hopscotch.

Sitting less is better for your child

According to the Heart Foundation school aged children should spend less than two hours each day of television viewing, using computers and playing electronic games. Sitting for too long is very easy in the modern age, however sitting for too long is bad for both adults and children. Even if a student plays sport after school, it is very easy to sit for more than the 2 hours. It is now well accepted by scientists that sitting for too long is linked with poor nutrition and obesity, as well as other health problems.

Some ideas for reducing the time children spend sitting down

Limit the amount of time on the computer, television or playing games, especially in daylight hours

Limit the number of TVs and computers in the house, and remove from bedrooms

Have fun family activities instead of watching TV

Parents are role models, monitor how much time you spend on devices/electronic gadgets

Make up a box of play equipment, such as balls, hula hoops, footballs, skipping ropes, building blocks

Share ideas with other parents.
